

Marblehead Cowl

Designed by Kate Dailey

A Broken Rib Cowl, which reflects the rocky coastline of New England.

The Cowl will be about 46" around and 10-12" deep

Gauge is flexible: 3.5-4 sts per inch in broken rib pattern. It should be loose and cozy.

Materials

250-300 yards of Bulky Yarn

#10 32" Needle

Instructions

Cast on 180 Stitches

Join in the round being careful not to twist

Place Marker at the beginning of the round

Row 1 : (Knit 1 Purl 1) repeat around

Row 2 : Knit

Repeat rows 1 and 2 until desired width, leaving enough yarn to cast off.

Cast off all stitches and weave in ends.

Enjoy!

The Marblehead Cowl design is a tribute to Marblehead Massachusetts's rocky coast.

Visit Marblehead Knits website www.Marbleheadknits.com for an inside glimpse into this charming and popular yarn shop and to meet its creative owner, Kate Dailey.

Author's note: In A Dark and Snowy Night, Nell Endicott is knitting the Marblehead Cowl for her sister who lives in the Midwest, an encouragement to her to visit the seaside knitters and Boston's North Shore more often, as well as Marblehead Knits.